THEATRICAL AND OTHERWISE.

News and Comment of Stage Matters and Other Gossip.

Marion Manola has brought suit for a divorce from her husband, Jack Mason.

Pauline Hall has left the vaudeville stage and will join Francis Willson's opera company in Cincinnati next week.

Opie Read, the novelist, entered upon a stage career yesterday, appearing at the Chicago Opera House in vaudeville. Mr. Read will recite original character sketches.

"MORE THAN QUEEN."

One of the largest audiences ever in the Lexington opera house witnessed Julia Arthur's magnificent production of "More Than Queen" last night. Gowned superbly, moving through scenes of poetic beauty and genuine imperial splendor, Julia Arthur is at her very best, in beauty of feature and voice, as well as in intensity of action. The play represents a series of scenes in the varied career of the luckless Empress, a character which Miss Arthur looks to the life and which she acts with grace, passion and tenderness. She has never been seen to better advantage.

THE MURRAY COMPANY.

The Murray Comedy Company has been playing to very large business all week at the Grand and has been giving excellent satisfaction. The company is the best repertoire organization that has visited Paris in years and its performances rank much better than many higher priced companies that have appeared here. The plays are given by competent people and the company carries its own band and orchestra. Miss Lonnie Deane's beautiful dances are alone worth the price of admission.

"A Fatal Error" was presented last night before a large audience. Tonight "Hogan's Troubles" will be the bill. "Foggy's Ferry" will be played at the matinee to-morrow and the engagement will close to-morrow night with "The Senator's Daughter."

The Murray Company is playing to the largest business ever received by a popular priced attraction in Paris.

ANDREWS OPERA COMPANY.

On Friday and Saturday, January 26th and 27th, with Saturday matinee, the first operatic attraction of the season will make its bow to a Paris audience. For this auspicious occasion Manager Borland has engaged the celebrated Andrews Opera Co., which is a large organization with a fine list of principals, excellent chorus, handsome costumes, an augmented orchestra, and an attractive repertoire from which has been selected "Martha," "Pirates of Penzance" and "Carmen," as the operas to be produced. It is seldom that an organization of this kind, singing standard opera in English is heard outside of the larger Eastern cities, and patrons of the theatre should appreciate the efforts and expense of Manager Borland in getting such an admirable company to open the musical season.

This will be the third appearance of this splendid company in this city, and present outlook gives every promise of great success, as inquiries for seats have been unusually numerous.

Season tickets will be sold, in advance only, at three dollars for four admissions, which is a saving of twenty-five per cent., as single seats are one dollar each. An advance subscription sale has opened at Borland's and all those desiring to take advantage of this offer will please call at once and enroll their names. The chart will be open to those holding season tickets only on Tuesday next. Regular sale opens on Wednesday morning.

SCINTILLATIONS.

An Interesting Jumble Of News And Comment.

John Uri Lloyd, the Cincinnati author, has written a Kentucky novel entitled "Stringtown Along the Pike," which will soon be published as a serial in the Bookman. The story concerns the Philpot feuds and many Kentucky names are used in the story. He will receive a larger royalty than was ever paid an American author.

Mrs. Elizabeth Parrigan, of near Albany, Ky., is 103 years old. She has lived under the administration of every President of the United States.

Mrs. Lizzie Skinner, of West Point, Ky., owns a tomahawk that was used by the noted Indian Chief, Tecumseh, in the battle of the Thames, in 1813.

Robert J. Taylor, aged thirty-four, shot himself through the heart Wednesday at his home in Carlisle. He had been married only three months, his wife being a sister of Berry Stewart, of the L. & N. Dispatcher's office in this city. No cause is known for the deed. He attempted to take his life on Christmas eve.

STOCK AND TURF NEWS.

Sales and Transfers Of Stock, Crop, Etc. Turf Notes.

Walker Buckner has bought in Fleming twenty yearling steers at $37.25 each. At Danville on Monday the mule market was brisk and anything that was fat sold high. Good plug horses were also in demand and many were sold.

There was a big crowd in Georgetown Monday, says the Times, but only a limited amount of live stock on sale. Auctioneer Ben B. Peak reports 140 cattle, feeders selling at $4.50 per cwt, and common yearling steers at $4, good horses $100 to $160; plug $35 to $60. No sheep nor hogs offered.

Vaccination.

It appearing to me by representation of Dr. Bowen, the Health Officer of Bourbon County, that there is a necessity that all persons in the county should be vaccinated, I hereby authorize and empower the physicians of their respective precincts to vaccinate all persons who are unable to procure vaccination. The physicians shall furnish to me as Judge of said County, a true list, under oath, of the persons vaccinated by them, with the charges thereof, no to exceed twenty-five cents for each successful vaccination. All cities and towns in the county having Councilmen or Trustees do not come under this notice, as it is especially their duty to make proper provisions under Sec. 4611 of Kentucky Statutes. Every good citizen is interested in observing and assisting in the enforcement of this notice. I hope no further steps will become necessary. I am, respectfully,

W. M. PURNELL,
Judge of Bourbon Co., Ky.
